

← Back

Housing & Eviction Prevention Project (Monroe Co.)

by South Central Indiana Housing Opportunities

Providing free legal advice, mediation and housing/social services referrals to assist Monroe County tenants and landlords facing eviction.

Housing & Eviction Prevention Project-HEPP services are currently being provided at all initial Eviction hearings and initial Damages hearings and most Emergency Eviction hearings in Monroe Co. Circuit Court (conducted remotely via zoom). Pre-hearing consultation and services are also available by contacting HEPP at (812) 340-8189 for more information.

Court initial hearing sessions: Wednesdays 9:00am - 11:00am and Thursdays 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Telephonic sessions: Fridays 1:00pm - 3:00pm and by appt.

HEPP services are provided collaboratively under a partnership among:

Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM)

Pro Bono Indiana fka District 10 Pro Bono Project

Justice Unlocked

South Central Indiana Housing Opportunities (SCIHO) 2019-2020

Our thanks to the following sources for their in-kind and partial financial support in 2021:

City of Bloomington Jack Hopkins Social Services Grant

Community Foundation of Bloomington and Monroe County, Inc.

United Way of Monroe County

Monroe County Eviction Avoidance Working Group (2020)

Indiana Supreme Court through a 2020 Court Reform Grant award (2020)

---

Services this program provides:

navigating the system, advocacy & legal aid, mediation

---

Populations this program serves:

anyone in need

---

Next Steps

Call (812) 340-8189 to get more info.

Email evictionavoidance@gmail.com to get more info.

Available:

Website: <https://sciho.org/programs-and-projects/housing-eviction-resource-table/>

Eligibility:

- This program is for residents of Monroe Co. or have an Eviction/Damages hearing in Monroe Co. Circuit Court.
- Anyone can access this program.

Languages: English

Cost: Free